

DEMAND INCREASE IN THEIR WAGES

MINERS WANT AN ADVANCE OF TEN CENTS A TON.

Illinois Men Unanimous—The Proposition Will Be Submitted to the Conference to Be Held at Chicago Monday—Cotton Manufacturers State Their Position.

Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 15.—When the operators and miners meet in Chicago Monday the latter will announce their determination to insist on an increase all along the line of 10 cents a ton for digging. Illinois is a unit for an advance, and will insist that it be not less than 10 cents a ton. There is no Illinois delegate here who does not favor such an increase, and there are some who would vote for a greater. In Illinois the increase would be based on the present rate in the Wilmington field, which is 65 cents.

From what can be learned the weak spot is in Indiana, which is the closest competitor of the Illinois mines. There is said to be some question of whether the Indiana rate can be brought up to that of Illinois, but the Illinois men are insisting upon it. They say that otherwise there is sure to be a fight in their state. Unless Indiana increases its demand it is predicted that Grape Creek will go down and when Grape Creek goes down there is danger for the other fields.

It is said the Ohio operators will fight any attempt to abolish what is known as the Ohio-Pittsburg differential in the rate for mining, and this will necessitate a preliminary meeting of the operators in Chicago. It is predicted that all will not be harmony in that meeting, and there are those who say the Ohio and Pittsburg operators may not be able to agree prior to going into the interstate conference. The Pittsburg operators are said to be getting together to insist that the differential be wiped out.

The new executive board, is composed of Fred Dilcher, Ohio; Henry Stephenson, West Virginia; John Fahy, Pennsylvania; W. D. Ryan, Illinois; J. H. Kennedy, Indiana, and Edward McKay, Pennsylvania.

Two important resolutions were referred to the committee on scale Friday. The first of these provided that in the future machine-mined coal should be paid for by the ton, instead of by the day, as at present. The other was that a special scale be made for top coal in the Sunday creek field.

LOWELL MANUFACTURERS FIRM.

Cotton Men Define Their Position—Strikes and Rumors of Strikes.

Boston, Mass., Jan. 15.—The Lowell mill men had two conferences with representatives of their operatives this week, with a view to averting a strike, but the meetings bore no fruit, any they have issued a statement defining their position. They base their action in making reductions upon the decision of the Fall River Manufacturers' association, despite the fact that few goods made in that city come in direct competition with the inferior grade made at Fall River and in the south.

In their statement, representatives of the seven principal cotton mill corporations in Lowell in which the reduction in wages is made—the Hamilton, Boot, Lawrence, Tremont, Suffolk, Massachusetts, Merrimack and Appleton—say:

"Nothing new is contemplated. One would suppose from what has been printed that some new and deadly attack upon our employees was contemplated by us. The wage scale to be adopted is not at all a horizontal reduction of 10 per cent, but is in many, if not in most cases, nothing more than a return to the schedule of September, 1893, which prevailed for two years, or until August, 1895. At the last-named date an advance of from 5 to 7 per cent was made, discounting what seemed like the dawning of a new prosperity. The event proved that the advance then given was not justified by business conditions. It is our simple duty to the owners of the property we are intrusted with—who have had little or no return from it of late—to take the only course open to us—to reduce the cost of our goods and so improve our chances of a small profit on them."

Sign Uniformity Agreement.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 15.—At a meeting of Pittsburg coal operators favorable to "true uniformity" conditions a committee of five was appointed to nominate a uniformity commission. Secretary Johnson said that fifty-three operators, representing 70 per cent of the production of the Pittsburg district, had signed the uniformity agreement.

Carders Vote to Strike.

New Bedford, Mass., Jan. 15.—The carders have unanimously voted to strike on Monday to resist the cut-down of 10 per cent.

No Combination of Railways.

Memphis, Tenn., Jan. 15.—The Mississippi state senate has adopted a measure that will, if finally passed and approved, block the contemplated purchase of the Georgia Pacific by the Illinois Central. The bill prohibits consolidation of competing railroads under any guise on a penalty of $10,000 and forfeiture of charter.

HOT SESSION IN IOWA.

Temple Resolution in Again—New School Book Scheme Introduced.

Des Moines, Iowa, Jan. 15.—Bills were introduced Friday in both houses of the legislature that indicate fighting. In the senate the schoolbook agitation was opened by the introduction of a resolution which may mean the manufacture and publication of schoolbooks in penitentiaries by prison labor. In the house the Temple amendment, which caused such an uproar in the legislative special session last year, was introduced. It means that the old fight between the railroads, backed by the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, and the employees will be fought over again. Over a dozen bills of more or less importance were introduced in both houses. One to reduce the interest on state warrants from 6 to 4 per cent and another to allow public funds to draw interest are considered to be among the most important.

Tuesday the committee investigating state institutions will report to both houses of the legislature. The result expected is that the state committee on ways and means will report a committee bill in favor of one board of control for state institutions. A. B. Funk, chairman of that committee, favors a state board of three to have charge of all the institutions except educational ones.

Some of the members are in favor of three boards of control, one for the educational, one for the eleemosynary and one for the penal institutions.

The Temple amendment provides that no insurance offered by any railroad to an employee against injury shall be a bar to suit against the company. It is a blow aimed directly at the relief association of the Burlington line, and came within four votes of passing the house at the last session of the legislature.

Senator Emmert, president of the state board of health, introduced a bill to prevent the spread of consumption, which provides that importation of dairy cattle shall be prohibited unless they shall have been certified to the state veterinarian as having passed a satisfactory tuberculin test within ninety days.

Senator Hayward wishes to have the building and loan laws so amended that the associations shall not have to publish their lists of membership for assessment purposes.

Will Do Away with Strikes.

Parkersburg, W. Va., Jan. 15.—The West Virginia Miners' association is the name of an organization of miners that has taken out a charter under the West Virginia laws. The object is to form a board of arbitration of three miners and three operators to be elected by their respective bodies, and to this board refer all disputes on wages, etc., for settlement. In case of a tie vote the two boards will elect a disinterested man, who shall decide the dispute. This plan, it is believed, will do away with strikes and lockouts.

Favors Small Local Banks.

Washington, Jan. 15.—Robert S. Taylor of Indiana, a member of the monetary commission, was again before the house banking and currency committee at Friday's session. He referred to the inadequacy of the banking facilities in the South and West, and suggested that for the present this country must look mainly to independent, small, local banks for the relief which is needed, though he conceded that an extensive system of branch banks might have a more effective tendency to equalize rates of interest.

No Business at Springfield.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 15.—The house and senate merely went through the motions of holding sessions Friday, making no attempt to do any business. There were only two senators in the senate wing and about twenty representatives in the house wing. Even Speaker Curtis was absent, and Representative Selby presided while the clerk sped swiftly through the journal, and recorded a motion to adjourn.

Daylight Burglars Felled.

Parnassus, Pa., Jan. 15.—While the cashier and teller were at luncheon at noon Friday six men attempted to break into and rob the Parnassus bank. They were discovered by citizens, who raised an alarm. The burglars were chased with guns and fired at, but escaped after risking their lives in a small boat in the Allegheny river, which is full of running ice.

Find the Missing Notes.

Fowler, Ind., Jan. 15.—The missing notes which Treasurer Kirtley was supposed to have had upon his person when shot on the night of Dec. 29, were found by Dr. Clark Cook in the county treasurer's office. They amount to near three thousand dollars. Mr. Kirtley's accounts are being investigated by Scott Bradley. There is as yet no evidence of shortage.

MR. M'KENNA'S NAME IS "ON THE HOOK"

SENATE POSTPONES ACTION ON HIS NOMINATION.

To Amend Constitution—Senator Hoar Offers An Important Resolution—Little Business Transacted in the House—Heavy Custom Receipts Reported For Wednesday.

Washington, Jan. 15.—Almost the entire four hours of the executive session of the senate Friday were devoted to the indirect consideration of the nomination of Joseph McKenna, now attorney-general, to be associate justice of the Supreme court. The discussion was the result of an effort on the part of Senator Allen of Nebraska (Pop.) to secure a postponement for two weeks. In the end a compromise was reached deferring consideration until a week from Friday on the condition that the Nebraska senator should agree to allow a vote to be taken on that day. The Hawaiian treaty was not touched upon during the session.

Mr. Hoar (Mass.) presented the following joint resolution, proposing an amendment to the constitution:

"That the following article be proposed to the legislatures of the several states as an amendment to the constitution of the United States:

"The term of office of the President and of the LVith congress shall continue until the 30th day of April in the year 1901, at noon. The senators whose existing term would expire otherwise on the 4th day of March in the year 1901, or thereafter, shall continue in office until noon of the 30th day of April, succeeding such expiration; and the 30th day of April, at noon, shall thereafter be substituted for the 4th of March as the commencement and termination of the official term of the President, vice-president, senators and representatives in congress."

The resolution was referred to the committee on privileges and elections. Senator Quay introduced a resolution for the investigation of the troubles in the Seminole nation.

The President submitted to congress the awards and report of the commission appointed under the terms of the treaty of 1896 to adjust the claims of British subjects for losses sustained through the seizure of their sailing vessels in Bering sea. In his letter he recommends that $473,151 be appropriated to meet the awards.

In the House.

Washington, Jan. 15.—It was the intention of the house managers to proceed with the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill Friday, but owing to the excited condition of affairs in Havana and the wildly exaggerated reports afloat they decided to avoid the possibility of opening up a Cuban debate by relinquishing the day to the committee on claims in charge of bills of the private calendar. Before this order was entered upon the agricultural bill was passed. Most of the day was consumed in a filibuster against a bill to pay the publishing house of the Methodist Episcopal church (south) at Nashville, Tenn., $288,000 for the seizure and use of the property of that corporation during the war. The opposition consumed the time until 5 o'clock, when the house adjourned.

Customs Receipts $889,024.

Washington, Jan. 15.—The customs receipts Wednesday were $889,024, the heaviest since the new tariff went into effect. Treasury officials are gratified at the continued increase, and confidently predict that the new law will provide a surplus of revenue from now on.

Washington, Jan. 15.—The Lacey bill extending the homestead laws to Alaska and granting right of way to railroads was favorably reported to the house from the public lands committee.

Blow to Masonic Insurance.

St. Paul, Jan. 15.—The Minnesota Grand Lodge of Masons has declared that all insurance companies operating under "masonic" titles are unmasonic and that masons must not insure in them. This order will take effect March 1. It will afford insurance companies employing the designation "masonic" opportunity to drop the term and also cease to use masonic emblems on their stationery.

ITALY MAKES PLANS FOR A REPUBLIC

POPE LEO SAID TO FAVOR SUCH A SCHEME.

Would Solve All Problems—Remarkable Plan Suggested For the Adjustment of the Difficulties Which Vex Both Vatican and Quirinal—An Outline of the Proposition.

London, Jan. 15.—The Rome correspondent of the Daily Chronicle in a startling statement quotes largely from an article in Civiltà Cattolica, which he declares is directly inspired by the Vatican and the Pope, advocating as the solution of the eternal question between the Vatican and the Quirinal the establishment of an Italian republic.

The article, which is based on the Pope's Christmas allocution, declares that the thing which stands opposed to papal independence is not Italian unity, but "the special and concrete form wherein that unity is at present maintained, with results much more disastrous to the state than to the holy see."

It proceeds to assert that the co-existence of the Vatican and the Italian monarchy is impossible, and that one or the other must go. It then suggests the constitutions of Switzerland and America as examples of "admirable and glorious constitutions, true union of nation and state, though differing from that of Italy, which has produced nothing but weakness, misery and starvation."

The article concludes: "Without the aid of foreign bayonets the true Italy will find for itself its own way and will rise again, let us hope, from the ignominy in which it now lies prostrate, to true greatness."

The Daily Chronicle's correspondent asserts that this is "an intentional revelation to the outer world of the policy actuating the inner mind of Cardinal Rampolla, papal secretary of state."

DEATH LIST REACHES FIFTY.

Work of Searching for Dead Continues at Fort Smith, Ark.

Fort Smith, Ark., Jan. 15.—The names of four more victims of the tornado were added to the list of dead Friday. Two men died of injuries received by falling buildings, and a child and a man were reported killed in the Indian Territory six miles northwest of Fort Smith. Reports show that the storm struck several points in the territory before reaching this city. Several more dead bodies are supposed to be among the debris of the Burgess Hotel, and the total number of deaths in Fort Smith to date is forty-eight, which, with the two persons killed in the territory, is increased to fifty.

Investigating the Lynching.

Earlsboro, I. T., Jan. 15.—United States Commissioner Walter Jones is holding court at Wewoka, and the deputies of the court are busy issuing subpoenas and warrants in an endeavor to bring the lynchers of the two Seminole Indians to justice. They can only be tried on the charge of kidnapping and taking the murderers by force from the Seminole nation. The killing of the Indians comes under Oklahoma jurisdiction.

Strike May End Soon.

London, Jan. 15.—It is admitted on good authority that the end of the engineers' strike is not far distant. It appears that the London engineers have consented to abandon the forty-eight-hour demands, but so far the north of England engineers have not consented, which justified Mr. Barnes, secretary of the Amalgamated Society of Engineers, in refusing to join the committees that have yielded.

Bishop McFaul, who acted as arbitrator in the proceedings looking to a reunion of the two wings of the Ancient Order of Hibernians in the United States, has fixed Trenton, June 27, as the place and time for the holding of the national convention of the reunited organizations.

Coal in Saginaw County, Mich.

Says He Has Senator Hanna's Money.

Portsmouth, Ohio, Jan. 15.—Representative Otis warned parties here Friday that the money offered him by Senator Hanna's agents could be secured at any time by Boyce from T. C. Campbell and that if not claimed it will be turned over to charity. The statement added that Boyce would be arrested at once if he claimed it.

Woman Suffrage Amendment.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 15.—A concurrent resolution has been introduced in the assembly proposing a woman suffrage amendment to the state constitution.

GOOD PROSPECTS AHEAD.

Dun's Trade Review Gives Encouraging Reports on Trade.

New York, Jan. 15.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: "The year has opened with a very satisfactory prospect. It is all the better that there is no wild excitement in the speculative markets, and, while stocks advance a little, grain yields a little. The payments through principal clearing houses, notwithstanding a decrease at New York owing to less activity in stocks, are 2.6 per cent larger than in 1897 and 10.1 per cent larger outside New York. Earnings of all railroads in the United States reporting for December—$43,364,279—indicate substantially the same rate of increase, exceeding last year's by 10.5 per cent and the earnings of 1892 for the same roads by 1.3 per cent. Since 1892 was on the whole the most prosperous year thus far, comparisons indicate, notwithstanding the lowest prices ever known, that the volume of business is larger, and, in spite of some cutting of rates, the earnings of railroads are larger than in the best year of past history.

"The wheat market has been curiously languid, yielding a quarter of a cent. Western receipts were 5,577,250 bushels for the two weeks, against 3,098,688 bushels last year. Corn exports continue large, although equal to last year's. Spot cotton is a sixteenth lower, mainly because of the stoppage of some mills by difficulty about wages. But nothing is definitely known about the quantity of cotton yet coming forward and one report of creditable character puts the year's yield at 10,570,250 bales, though results thus far do not quite justify so large an estimate. The iron furnaces in blast Jan. 1 report an output of 226,608 tons weekly, against 226,024 tons weekly Dec. 1. The woolen manufacturers have been buying wool largely, and for reasons not publicly explained it is evident that large orders have been taken by the leading mills, although sales have declined about 40 per cent compared with the previous week.

"Failures for the last week have been 349 in the United States, against 455 last year, and 45 in Canada, against 71 last year."

SILVER MANIFESTO COMING.

Leaders of the Bimetallic Forces Will Urge Concerted Action.

Washington, Jan. 15.—As the result of a conference held within the last few days between the silver leaders of various parties it is understood Chairman Jones of the Democratic national committee, Chairman Butler of the Populist national committee and Chairman Towne of the silver Republican national committee will issue a joint manifesto the early part of next week with a view to securing common action by the three organizations in the political contest of 1898.

Threaten to Burn the Town.

Clinton, Ark., Jan. 15.—A reign of terror prevails here, growing out of the belief that an organized attempt will be made to burn the town and release from jail Lee Miles and Will Harden, the slayers of Hugh Patterson. A heavily armed guard surrounds the jail and walks the streets, and Clinton is practically under martial law. The friends of the prisoners have sworn that they will liberate Harden and Miles, if they have to burn the town to do it.

Methodists to Observe the Centennial.

New York, Jan. 15.—Ohio Methodists are preparing to celebrate their centennial. They surpass in numbers every other state except New York. President McKinley will be the central figure of the celebration, but the background will be made up of circuit riders and similar picturesque features of early Methodism in the West. The exact date has not yet been fixed, but it probably will be near the college commencement season next summer.

Russia Threatens Turkey.

Constantinople, Jan. 15.—The Sultan granted an audience Friday to M. Zinovieff, the Russian ambassador, who, it is asserted, made an important communication with reference to the candidature of Prince George of Greece for the Governorship of Crete. M. Zinovieff declared that unless the Sultan withdrew his objections to Prince George Russia would propose the annexation of Crete to Greece.

Draper Trial Nears the End.

GOLD NOTES FOR INDIA.

Finance Minister Is in Favor of Such a Proceeding.

Calcutta, Jan. 15.—Sir James Westland, the finance minister of the council, has introduced a bill providing for the issue of currency notes in India against gold. Mr. Arthur, the paid secretary of state in London, in behalf of the banks and chambers of commerce, indorsed the measure.

The finance minister said the Indian money market was experiencing a period of extreme stringency. The local resources, he added, were unable to supply the demands of trade. The scarcity, he explained, was due to the banks and remitting their capital home and keeping as little as possible in India. This policy was adopted before the legislation of 1893 and was not in consequence of that legislation. But while they were advancing toward the attainment of a 16d rupee, the success militated against the transfer of sterling capital to India in exchange. The banks must operate upon commercial principles, and no blame was attached to them.

Sir James Westland denied the allegation that the government was holding money in order to starve commerce and force up exchanges; but the recent demands on the government had been so heavy that it had been obliged to ask the secretary of state to intermit the drawings. The amount in hand was ample to assure the convertibility of the Indian notes. Therefore there was no risk from a currency point of view.

Defects in the Loud Bill.

Washington, Jan. 15.—First Assistant Postmaster General Heath sees one or two disagreeable features of the Loud postoffice bill. He approves of the main object of the bill, which is to curtail the dissemination of "yellow-back" novels, but he is troubled over the prospect that the bill will interfere also with the sending out of sample copies of the country newspapers and large weeklies, which is practiced to increase circulation. Another objection which appeals strongly to an experienced campaign manager like Col. Heath is the fact the bill will interfere with the work of national campaign committees in sending out broadcast special editions of newspapers containing political articles.

Humbert Is an Enemy to France.

Rome, Jan. 15.—It is stated here in diplomatic and political circles that the true reason for the resignation by M. Billot of the post of French ambassador to the quirinal is because of the certainty of the overthrow of the present Francophile administration as soon as the national legislature meets, and, above all, on account of the hopelessness of converting King Humbert into a friend of France. His hostility to the latter country is so pronounced and he is so thoroughly heart and soul with Germany, that M. Billot declares that it is a useless task to attempt to bring about any more friendly relations between Italy and France as long as he remains on the throne.

Populists Will Take a Vote.

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 15.—The Populists concluded their work in this city Friday. They arranged to take a referendum vote of the rank and file of their party on the question: "What date is your choice for holding a national convention for the nomination of presidential candidates—Monday, July 4, 1898; Friday, May 26, 1899, or Thursday, Feb. 22, 1900?"

Fight on Binder-Twine Trust.

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 15.—The Implement Dealers' Association of Iowa, Nebraska and Kansas in annual convention declare that in future the retailers of these three states would refuse to handle binder twine made by any company selling direct to the consumers. It is said this means a big fight on the output of the trust.

Denied a Seat in the Senate.

Washington, Jan. 15.—The senate committee on privileges and elections decided to make an adverse report upon Hon. H. W. Corbett's claim to a seat in the senate from Oregon. The vote was 4 to 3 and was cast on partisan lines, except that Senator Burrows (Rep.), who was absent, was counted, on his authority, in opposition to Mr. Corbett.

Troops Guard Our Legation.

Madrid, Jan. 15.—The police precautions have been redoubled in the vicinity of the United States legation and around the residence of the United States minister, General Stewart L. Woodford.

TELLS THE STORY OF THE FIRST RAILWAY

INTERESTING ARTICLE ON EARLY DAYS.

How the Chicago & Northwestern Company Was Organized and the Line Finally Completed—Difficulties the Projectors Had to Surmount.

In the recent special edition of the Fond du Lac Commonwealth, Col. N. Smith's paper, the following article concerning "the first railway—the Chicago & Northwestern Railway," appeared:

"Portions of what now constitute this system of railways were built in Illinois before any work was done in Wisconsin. John B. Macy and T. L. Gillet, of Fond du Lac, and A. Hyatt Smith, of Janesville, were the leading spirits in the 'Rock River Valley Union Railroad Company,' as it was first called. At that date, 1849, the pioneers of Fond du Lac county were keenly alive to the building of plank roads, but evinced very little interest or faith in railroads. J. B. Macy becoming satisfied that nothing could be done in Fond du Lac, without outside aid, went east and succeeded in interesting Robert J. Walker of Washington, in the enterprise. Late in '50 a contract was let to Bradley & Co., of Vermont, to construct a portion of the road. T. F. Strong, one of the firm of contractors, moved to Fond du Lac early in '51, equipped to begin the work. When the people saw him enter the village with 160 horses, followed soon after by loads of shovels, picks, wheelbarrows and other tools, they aroused from their lethargy. Then there was faith; then there was enthusiasm; then there was railroad on the brain.

Celebrate Beginning.

"July 10, 1851, was fixed upon as the date for 'breaking the ground' and arrangements were made for celebrating the event in true western style. At an early hour in the morning of the 10th, teams began to pour into the village from all directions. Walworth, Rock, Jefferson and Dodge counties sent large delegations. Waupun's delegation, numerous and enthusiastic, came with flags flying and band playing.

"The starting of the immense procession was announced by the booming of the village cannon. A. Hyatt Smith, president of the 'Rock River Valley Union Railroad' headed the procession, followed by the officers of the company, state, village and county officials and the people generally in large numbers. 'The oldest inhabitant' speaks of that memorable railroad celebrating procession as one of the largest and most enthusiastic ever seen in Fond du Lac county. Preceded by the bands, the procession marched to the spot where work was to be inaugurated—not far from the railroad bridge now spanning East Branch—and formed a hollow square. The president of the day, Mason C. Darling, opened the ceremonies with a brief address, and then introduced A. Hyatt Smith, the president of the day. A spade, which had been carried in the procession, as an important factor on this occasion, was then handed to him and as he cut through the tough sod and tossed it into the air, a shout went up that made the earth tremble.

The Toasts

"When quiet was restored, Edward S. Bragg, toastmaster, presented the following toasts:

"Walworth County—Though last on the line of the road in Wisconsin, may she be first in her contributions for the great enterprise of the state.

"Rock County—Like the rock that Moses smote, it contains in its bosom a fountain that shall refresh a thirsty people.

"Jefferson County—Not unlike the illustrious statesman after whom she was christened, she loves freedom, and is bound to pursue it with an iron horse.

"Dodge County—Her iron ore—the Valley road the magic wand that turns it into gold.

"Fond du Lac County—She cannot wait to go east by water.

"John B. Macy, who had labored for years in behalf of the enterprise, and had given the whole subject much thought, assumed the role of prophet on the occasion of the banquet, which followed the 'breaking ground' at the Lewis house, and gave this toast:

"The Rock River Valley Union Railroad—It will be the connecting link in the great chain of railroads between the gulf of Mexico and the Pacific Ocean. The present generation will see this prediction fulfilled.

"In 1872, when the North-Western lines reached Isipemung, Mich., John B. Macy's prediction was fulfilled.

Work Moved Slowly.

"The difficulties to be overcome in getting the necessary materials for carrying on the work, made the progress on the road very slow. At last, in 1853, when the track was laid nearly to Chester, financial disaster overtook the corporation. In 1855, the city of Fond du Lac voted $350,000 aid, the company was reorganized, and the road pushed on to Minnesota Junction, under the name of Chicago, St. Paul, and Fond du Lac railway. Hard times were not overcome by a change of name, and still the road progressed slowly. The same contractors and company under an Illinois charter had built a road as far as Janesville from Chicago.

"Early in 1859 the legislature of Illinois and Wisconsin authorized a reorganization of the company, and the railroad then took its present name, Chicago & Northwestern. The road, under its new name and new directors, was rapidly built that year, between Janesville and Minnesota Junction, thus opening a line of 177 miles in a few months, over eight years from the time the ground was broken in Fond du Lac."

HOSPITAL OFFICERS NAMED

Mayor Thoroughgood Is President and S. B. Heddles Secretary.

The stockholders in the Oak Lawn Hospital association met last night and elected officers for the ensuing term as follows:

President—John Thoroughgood.
Vice President—Mrs. S. C. Crosby.
Secretary—S. B. Heddles.
Treasurer—F. S. Winslow.

Mayor Thoroughgood said that he was responsible for the hospital not getting another appropriation from this city. The hospital was running down and he wanted to see how it was going to come out before he would favor the plan to give it help from the city. He thought there would be no doubt in the future about getting money.

President Thoroughgood will call a meeting of the board of directors next week and the immediate wants of the hospital will then be looked into.

TRY SKIN GRAFTING PROCESS

The skin grafting process will be tried in the endeavor to save the life of Miss Arquette, who was recently terribly burned. Dr. J. B. Whiting says that this is the method to be used when the unfortunate girl is taken to Milwaukee. Her side, from her shoulder to her ankle, was severely burned, and her case has been critical ever since the accident.

HEAR A TALK TO HUSBANDS

Mr. Hall Will Speak on This Subject Tomorrow Night.

One week ago Rev. W. A. Hall of Court Street M. E. church, spoke to a congregation that filled the audience room of the church, the aisles and the gallery. Some went away. Tomorrow evening he speaks on "What the Bible Says to Husbands." He will doubtless speak plainly, and people are interested to know what he will say. Of course a large gathering is probable. In the morning he will continue his Life of Christ series. Interest in this series grows. One week from Sunday evening the subject will be "The Bible to Wives."

Wants

A Washington Bud.
Miss Daisy Leiter, who was recently introduced to Washington society, is described as a young lady of rare beauty. She is the second daughter of Levi Z. Leiter, the Chicago dry goods king who retired from business about a dozen years ago and leased the Washington house which James G. Blaine built, but could not afford to live in. Washington society has been sedulously cultivated by Mr. and Mrs. Leiter. Their eldest daughter, Miss Mary Leiter, was for a number of years a society belle at the national capital.

She Is a Woman Monk.
A new teacher of Brahmanism has appeared in Chicago in the person of a woman monk. She is known as the Swami Abhayananda. She is at the head of the Adwaita society, an order of Brahman origin. The Chicago branch is the only one in America. It consists of about 100 members. The Swami Abhayananda is a tall, graceful, but somewhat masculine woman, with striking features framed in an aureole of grayish white hair cut short. She wears a straight-cut robe of yellowish brown, with a brown girdle.

Tammany Hall's New Premier.
John F. Carroll, the new power in Tammany Hall who succeeds John Sheehan as right hand man to Richard Croker and who will be the acting premier of Greater New York, is a cool, suave, skillful politician, who, like most Tammany leaders, has come up from the bottom. Mr. Carroll was born in New York 43 years ago. After getting a fairly good education in the public schools he went to work as clerk in a grocery house. He soon got into politics, however, and his peculiar abilities have taken him to the top.

He Cost Haiti a Big Sum.
Emil Lueders, who was the cause of the Haitian-German controversy, is a negro of mixed Haitian and German blood who little thought when he began his quarrel with a cabman in Port au Prince that it would end in an international affair. Lueders is the son of a German merchant who settled in Port au Prince many years ago, and his mother is a full blooded Haitian woman who married the merchant.

TRAINING THE CHILDREN.
Why Papa and Mamma Resolved to Change Their Ways.
"John," said Mrs. Wisely to her liege lord the other evening, according to the Detroit Free Press, "I want to have a very frank talk with you. Do you realize that the boys are old enough now to observe and are beginning to form their characters?"
"Of course I do. Great boys."
"Yes, and we want them to be great men. They naturally look up to you, John, more than to anybody else. For their sakes you must be careful in what you do and say. You fell over a chair the other day and used some very improper language. I heard William repeat it when he stubbed his toe in the back yard."
"The little rascal! He didn't?" chuckled the father.
"Yes, John, and they pretend to smoke cigars and pour drinks from an imaginary decanter. Can't you set them a better example?"
"Say, little one, I heard Amy playing keep house one afternoon lately. When callers were announced she sent out word that she was not at home. When she did consent to receive anyone she combed them down to beat the band before they were admitted. One was an old tramp, another was an intolerable bore and a third better a good deal be at home cleaning house or looking after her children. You couldn't have done it better yourself."

Her Flannels.
Teachers in the public schools of a large city hear many stories, some of them amusing, some of them pathetic, says the Youth's Companion. A young woman who teaches in a kindergarten in Boston, upon learning that one of her little pupils was sick, went to visit her. The teacher had been to Katie's home before, and so had no difficulty in finding the two little rooms at the top of a tenement house where Katie and her mother lived. The mother was absent and Katie, well wrapped up, was sitting up in bed. After the usual inquiries and condolences the teacher noticed that the little girl seemed to speak with some difficulty, and said: "Katie, I am going to examine your lungs." "Yes'm," responded the child, dutifully, and Miss C. began to loosen the child's waist. After removing it she found layer after layer of flannel, which she unfastened with some difficulty. Satisfying herself that there was no danger of pneumonia, she began to replace the child's dress, when Katie began to cry. "My mother'll be awful mad at you when she gets home and finds what you've done." "Why, Katie, what have I done?" "You've unfastened all my flannels and ma had just got me sewed up for the winter."

Why the Negro is Called "Coon."
Many years ago, when superstition held greater sway than now and the influences of the occult and weird were most potent, a cunning negro slave had acquired the reputation of possessing a familiar spirit and of being able to perform many uncanny mysteries. His fellow slaves held him in great awe, and even his master grew to a belief in his powers. This finally led to a wager, in which the greater part of the master's fortune was staked on the negro's divining ability. A barrel was placed on the lawn and a live coon placed under the barrel. Then the negro sooth-sayer was sent for and told to inform the crowd what was under the barrel. He tried in various ways to escape the exposure, but without success. Realizing that he was cornered, he leaned on the barrel dejectedly and remarked: "Well, you've got this old coon at last," whereupon a great shout applauded what was considered Sambo's remarkable astuteness and his reputation was forever firmly established.—Baltimore Sun.

Special Police in Japan.
In Japan special policemen may be employed by any citizen on payment of a sum amounting to $7 per month. There are two classes of detectives—those who work solely on state matters and those who look after criminals. The superior detectives confine themselves to political intrigues, the actions of political organizations, treason, etc. The majority of them have served as constables. They never wear a uniform dress. Their pay is almost the same as that of the common policemen, but their expenses are paid, and when they perform a good piece of work they receive extra compensation. They are allowed to employ their own assistants. These assistants are usually semi-criminals, ex-convicts, keepers of restaurants, brothels, etc. They are always trained athletes and are especially taught fencing. They rarely go armed, however.—Exchange.

And She Jumped at the Chance.
Miss Youngly—So you've only known him a month? Don't you think you're taking a great many chances in marrying him?
Miss Oldwaite (candidly)—Dear me, no. It's the only chance I've had in ten years.

Disperse.
She—Oh, Mr. Spouter, won't you recite for us this evening? He—Really, there will be so many strangers present that—ah—She—Oh, don't mind them; they'll be gone before you're half through.—Boston Traveler.

Police Cruelties.
The police of San Francisco are a fine looking body of men, and their efficiency has never been questioned. They are a terror to wrongdoers, and with good reason, for they have a method of subduing riotous and disorderly persons which is unique as it is severe. They have organized a glee club and have systematic musical drills. To apprehend a malefactor they do not use locust clubs, as the New York policemen do, but glee clubs, and just sing the wretch down. If a sweet siren song fails, they vocalize something powerfully dramatic—perhaps the policemen's chorus from "The Pirates of Penzance"—and that is sure to fetch them. Criminals in their cells, who have been arrested for disturbing the peace, listen to these stern officers of the law rendering "Blest Be the Tie That Binds" or "What Shall the Harvest Be?" and come out of jail changed men. The idea is such a good one that there is some danger of its general adoption.—Leslie's Weekly.

A Celestial Joke.
The love of fun is not unknown among the serious looking celestials, who during the last decade have been collecting in the Australian colonies. A storekeeper, wishing to advertise his articles in the Chinese language, engaged a Chinaman to paint a sign, expecting, of course, that it would be a very enticing one. It did not answer his expectations, however, for the only perceptible effect it had upon the "relations of the sun and the moon," as the Chinese term themselves, was to excite a grin of the broadest dimensions. At length the storekeeper, by a considerable bribe, obtained a translation in English of the advertisement, and found it read as follows: "Don't buy anything here; storekeeper a rogue."—Exchange.

The Baby's Feet.
New Nurse—Oh, Mrs. Barber! the baby! the baby! Mother—What is it? Quick! Is he ill? New Nurse—No, mum, no; but—but—he's cut a red hair!—Harper's Bazar.

"CALL A SPADE A SPADE."

Some People too Modest to Confide in their Physician—A Woman Cured of a Serious Disease by a Certain Method, the Only Drawback of which was, it "Made Her Too Fat."

From the Evening News, Detroit, Mich.
The doctor came in haste and found his patient again in great agony from a splitting headache. It was his fifth call on the same patient, and each time to treat the same trouble. With a suspicion that his diagnosis was incorrect and that he was treating a symptom and not the disease, he said to her: "Madam, it is useless for me to visit you again. You are keeping from me facts and symptoms which it is necessary I should know. The patient finally acknowledged that, through a false modesty, she had not told him all. Then she told how she had suffered from female weakness but had kept it from him—too modest to speak. The old doctor was disgusted at such prudishness, but when he knew the facts, cured her easily and quickly.
The following case differs from the above, only in the fact that the patient is not afraid to speak, and to "call a spade a spade."
"Words fail to describe the suffering I endured before I used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People," said Mrs. Alexander B. Clark, of 417 Michigan Avenue, Detroit, Mich. "For five years I have suffered from ovarian troubles, and was confined to my room for months at a time. I have undergone two operations for this trouble at the hospital, and seemed to grow worse instead of better. I had the best doctors and the best nursing, but for nearly five years I was not free for one single day from the most fearful headaches and intense twinging pains in my neck and shoulders. I have now, that for about three days every week for nearly six years, I had to stay in bed. Those headaches would come on me every week regularly. First I would notice black spots before my eyes, and then I would go blind, and send for the doctor. "At first they would treat me for indigestion and dyspepsia, then finally acknowledged that something else caused the trouble.
During these spells I was so nervous that I could not bear to have my husband walk across the floor, and as the doctors said there was no medicine that would reach my trouble, I consented to the operations, which left me worse off than I was before.
"In January of this year there was an article in the Evening News about the druggists that sold Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in Detroit. I told my husband I was going to try them and he said, 'try anything.'
"The next morning I went into Murphy Brothers' drug store and bought a box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Mr. Murphy said he had a big sale for the pills and personally knew many people who had been helped by them. I took the pills as directed, but was not helped a bit, and I told Mr. Murphy so, but he suggested that I give them a better trial. Before I had finished the second box I began to feel better and went down and bought a dozen boxes. When I had taken six boxes my headaches were gone, but I continued using the pills until I had taken the twelve boxes.
"Just think what I have suffered by operations and vile medicines, when a simple remedy cured me.
"There is only one thing against Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People," continued Mrs. Clark, "they made me fat. Since I commenced taking them, in January, I have gained twenty-six pounds. I remember the many times when my friends came to see me, when I was so thin and weak, that they expected to hear that I was dead the next week. Today I am perfectly well, and never felt better in my life, and it is all due to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People."
All dealers sell Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, or they will be sent post-paid on receipt of price, 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 (they are never sold in bulk or by the 100), by addressing Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

ASHAMED OF OHIO POLITICS.

The recent political fights in Ohio, and the outspoken expressions from all parts of the country in reference thereto show that the republicans of the United States are thoroughly loyal to their party and party organizations.

Reports from Ohio show that the attempts of a few dissatisfied republicans to thwart the will of a great majority of the people in the senatorial election has created such intense indignation and public excitement as has not been known since war days, and that 99 per cent. of the republicans of that state protested vigorously against disloyalty to the party, and from outside the state expressions have been equally vigorous.

A STRONG SHOWING.

Nothing is more conclusive as to the business condition of the country than the comparative bank failures of 1897 and previous years. "Bradstreet's" statistics show that the failures of national banks, state banks, savings banks, private banks, and loan and trust companies for 1897 were only 105, as against 197 in the preceding year, and against 598 for 1893, the year of panic. The statement of comparative liabilities is even more favorable for 1897, being in that year 60 per cent less than in 1896 and 90 per cent less than in 1893.

It begins to look as if Hawaii might be an American territory before very long. The annexation sentiment is undoubtedly growing much stronger throughout the country by reason of the land-grabbing going on in China and the general disturbances in the far east.

It is now announced that American coal can be delivered at Rio Janeiro at a less cost than English coal. There is a great market for coal at Rio, both for steamships and in the melting of manganese ore, of which there is a fine deposit within easy transportation.

WRITES FROM THE KLONDIKE

Edgerton Man Writes His Father About His Experiences.

Judge E. H. Smith of Edgerton, received a letter from his son Ben., this week, dated Dyea, Alaska, where he is waiting until March to get up the Chilkoot pass over into the Klondike gold field. He says there are thousands of gold hunters quartered at Dyea, most of them living in tents, and that living expenses are not extremely high there, and you can get a good meal for fifty cents. He expects to reach Dawson City before the ice goes out of the Yukon.

"Three of us rented a cabin here for $10 until March 1st. Living is so high here, 25 cents for a bed, 50 cents for a meal," the letter says. "We are doing our own cooking. There is going to be plenty of work here, the town is booming, lumber is hard to get, $40 per thousand. Two months ago there was nothing here, now there is about 2,000 people here, a good many in tents waiting for the time to come to start over the pass, there is a few going over now. Some are coming in here every day from Dawson City, short of provisions, they had to get out or starve. Some of them looked hard but all had more or less gold, one of them had 80 pounds. I do not think they will be able to handle all of the people that are coming here. I am going to packing when the time comes and earn a little money, then I will go through. I am not in a hurry. I think it will be easier to go through later on. It is a hard trip all right but it just suits me, I never was in better health in my life, I am 20 pounds heavier than I was last winter and getting fat every day."

Prunes! Prunes!

We bought at a bargain a lot of very choice California prunes such as usually sell at 3 pounds for 25c, we have reduced them to 5c a pound as long as they last. The quality can be relied upon as being first-class in every way. Sanborn.

HE TALKS OF PURE FOOD LAW

Commissioner Adams Sends Out a Letter Explaining the Aim.

State Dairy and Food Commissioner Adams has issued a complete list of his rulings on the new pure food law as made up to the present time. The list of rulings is accompanied by a copy of the law and a circular letter to the trade. In this letter to the dealers Commissioner Adams says the wholesale adulteration of food products has been a great evil, alike injurious to the dealers and to the public, and while he does not expect that the practice of adulteration can be stopped in a day, it will gradually cease as the dealers become acquainted with the law, and he declares that as they do acquire that acquaintance with its provisions, they will be held responsible for compliance with them.

Specific lists of pure or adulterated articles cannot be sent out by the department, and as the commissioner says such lists would be used for advertising purposes. The dealers must look for their protection to the good faith of the wholesalers, jobbers and manufacturers. The letter of the commissioner follows:

The pure food law passed by the legislature of 1897 became operative under its provisions January 1, 1898. At the request of the officers of the Wholesale Grocers' association of the state, and for the information of the trade generally, the department has interpreted the law to the extent of the rulings printed herewith. Specific lists of brands of pure or adulterated articles will not be sent out by this office, as such lists would be used for advertising purposes. No list of adulterated powder will be used by this department for the same reason. The retailers must find their protection in the guarantees or reliable jobbers or manufacturers that the goods purchased are made and labeled in accordance with the law. It will not be possible for the chemist of the commission to analyze and report the character of samples of food products sent to us unless such analysis is desired for the purpose of prosecution. If proof be found that he articles so submitted are sold in violation of law.

The dairy and food commissioner is authorized by law to employ only one chemist, and if all samples sent him for analysis by individuals should be analyzed and reported upon, he would have no time to analyze the samples taken by our inspectors, or to appear in court proceedings as a witness for the state. Retailers of canned goods should comply with the law requiring such goods to be labeled with the name and address of the manufacturer or the retailers, jobbers and manufacturers indicates clearly the general desire of the trade to comply with the law. It is also backed by a strong public sentiment in behalf of pure food products. This department, which to a considerable extent is entrusted with the execution of the law, will endeavor to make it effective because it is the law because it is based upon sound principles of public policy, and because it has the endorsement of public judgment. The wholesale adulteration of foods has been a great evil, injurious to reputable dealers and the public alike. It cannot be stopped in a day. But gradually, as the dealers in food products become acquainted with the meaning of the law, they will be held responsible for a compliance with its provisions.

The Queen's Giraffe.

Much disappointment was caused not only to the general public, but to naturalists, in London, by the recent death of a magnificent specimen of a male giraffe which was presented to Queen Victoria by Chief Bethoen of Bechuanaland. The animal sailed from Cape Town in the steamship Roslin Castle on September first. Herr Windhorn, who has long experience in transporting wild animals, was employed to accompany the giraffe to England. The utmost care was exercised, but the poor beast could not endure the tossings of the sea, and refusing to eat, it arrived at London so nearly dead from exhaustion that it lived only half an hour after reaching its quarters in Regent's park.

Gutters for Street Cars.

Charles A. Mann of Bangor, Me., proposes to do away with some of the annoyance of rainy weather riding on open street cars by building a gutter about the edges of the roof of the car. Hollow hand rails for passengers at the sides of the car are extended to the roof and conduct the water to the ground. The device has been patented.

Extinct Florida Race.

Prof. Cushing has just made an examination of the Pine Island keys, in Florida, and discovered the remains of villages and numerous relics of ancient lake dwellers, whose racial affinities are still unknown. Judging from their steel and copper implements or weapons, their pottery, masks and modes of sculpture, they appear to be akin to the ancient Mexican people.

Roman Villa Discovered.

Another Roman villa has been dug up at Boscoreale, on the slopes of Vesuvius, near Pompeii, where the great find of silver ornaments was made two years ago. The walls are covered with beautiful frescoes, chiefly landscapes and marines. One represents a bridge over a river, with an angler fishing with a line. Four wine jars were in the cellar and seven skeletons have been found in the excavation.

F. G. Hogland Indicted.

Rockford, Ill., Jan. 15.—The grand jury Friday brought in an indictment on the charge of embezzlement against ex-City Clerk F. G. Hogland. The latter was short about $14,000 in his accounts in the special assessment department when he turned over his books, but he made up the deficiency promptly on demand of Mayor Brown. The indictment is looked upon by many as persecution by political enemies.

To Succeed Senator Turpie.

Washington, Jan. 15.—Indiana is beginning to look about for a successor to Senator David Turpie, whose term expires March 3, 1899. On the personnel of the coming legislature will depend very largely who that successor is to be. The known candidates so far are Gen. Lew Wallace of Crawfordsville, Robert S. Taylor of Fort Wayne, ex-Congressman J. Frank Hanly of Williamsport and George McCulloch of Muncie.

YOUNG MAN JAILED FOR ALLEGED CRIME

JAMES CGLVIN, OF JUDA, IS HELD.

Hired a Horse at Crall's Livery, and Drove to Beloit, Where He Tried to Sell the Outfit—Marshall Appleby Suspected Him, and Locked Him Up.

James Colvin, an honest appearing young man of twenty-two years, walked into Joshua Crall & Son's livery stable at 115 and 117 East Milwaukee street, yesterday morning at 11:30 o'clock, and asked for a rig, saying that he wanted to drive in the country about four miles. On the noon train from Beloit, today, this same young man arrived, in charge of Officer George Appleby, who escorted him to the Rock county jail, where he was booked on the charge of horse stealing.

Before Justice Booth, at Beloit, his hearing is set for January 18, and in default of the necessary bail he will linger in jail.

Colvin, although young in years, has seen much of this world for the length of time that he has been on earth.

Joshua Crall was in charge of the stable yesterday when Colvin entered. Not doubting in the least as to the honesty of the young man Crall hitched up a team of his best horses and sent him away with the understanding that he was only to make a drive of four miles into the country. Instead, however, Colvin went to Beloit where he arrived during the early part of the afternoon and tried to dispose of the horses buggy, robes and harness. Marshall George Appleby, on hearing of the queer actions of the stranger, soon located him and placed him under arrest charging him with horse stealing. Colvin was so bewildered at first that he did not know what to say. He was then locked up in the Beloit jail and this morning was given his hearing and sent to this city.

At the jail this afternoon he had but little to say aside from denying his guilt.

Colvin is not known to the local police. He says his home is at Juda, Wis.

In the case of Sarah D. Spaulding against Charles H. Fuller et al, on reading and filing the sheriff's report of sale herein and on motion of J. P. Towne, the attorney for the plaintiff, ordered that said report be fully ratified and confirmed. On like motion it was further ordered that said plaintiff recover of the defendant, Charles H. Fuller, a judgment for $217.38, being the amount of the deficiency therein.

NEW JAIL CHEAPER THAN ANY DISPUTE

STATE BOARD FIGURE IT OUT THAT WAY.

There Will Be No Extension of Time Granted if the Present Attitude of the Board of Supervisors Is Maintained—G. W. Bishop In Town.

The jail question has not been fairly raised yet between the county board and the state board of control. There is still time for the county board to comply with the board of control's orders. Should the warning be disregarded, however, there will be trouble of a serious sort. George W. Bishop of the state board, was here last night visiting the school for the blind and he said:

"The board does not wish to make trouble but is thoroughly in earnest regarding a new jail for Rock county. There will be no controversy, but if any prisoner is put in the old Rock county jail after the time set by the board it will cost the county considerable money. There is ample authority for enforcing a condemnation order and enforcing it to the letter."

"There was a case of this sort in one of the northern counties not long ago, and it cost the county considerable money. Rock county would be very foolish to repeat the experiment, and I doubt whether the supervisors really think wise to do so themselves."

The close relation between the county and the state board in the matter of maintaining the county asylum, makes it important that there be no friction at other points, and it is believed that the board will in the end take the same view.

NOT JUSTICE OF THE PEACE

Judge M. M. Phelps Decides That He Has Not Such Jurisdiction.

A decision of much importance was made in the municipal court in the Hoag-Waterman case when it was held that M. M. Phelps as judge of the municipal court had no jurisdiction as a justice of the peace although he may have jurisdiction in many justice cases. This decision was the outcome of the change of venue case of Andrew S. Hoag vs. Jerome Waterman which was taken from Justice M. P. Richardson's court.

After the case had entered Justice Richardson's court James Waterman, the defendant, entered an affidavit of prejudice and asked for a change of venue.

The statute provides that in such cases where the justice of peace allows a change of venue the case is to go to the nearest justice of the peace. According to the law this particular case of Hoag vs. Waterman should have been taken from Justice Richardson to Justice Patten, but in this instance an order was made for a change of venue to Judge M. M. Phelps as the nearest justice of peace.

When the case was called E. D. McGowan for the defendant moved for a dismissal, on the grounds that a municipal judge is no justice of the peace and that the municipal judge has no jurisdiction to try a case sent from a justice court to the municipal court on a charge of venue.

On this motion Judge Phelps dismissed the case. Another action has been commenced in the municipal court. The plaintiff brings suit to collect $25 commission for securing a loan of $3,000 for the defendant.

Local attorneys say that according to this decision a number of cases tried in the past are without effect.

Seven Spaniels Raised After Their Mother Was Dead.

Seven Spaniel puppies, whose mother died when they were one week old, have been brought up by the use of the nursery bottle. The puppies are the property of Harry Reynolds, A. P. Russell, and William Woods. Soon after their eyes were open to the light of the world, their mother was taken suddenly ill and died. Each morning the young men in charge would take a bottle, with rubber nipple attached, filled with warm milk, to the cozy blanket lined box where the puppies made their home. The puppies would make a wild scramble in their efforts to reach the bottle first. All seven dogs are now well and hearty.

LOCOMOTIVE PLOWS SCARCE

But Few Have Been Placed On Engines This Year.

There have been a very small number of snow plows put on Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul and Chicago & North Western engines this winter. Especially is this true in reference to locomotives that rest in the local round houses. Besides a very few small ones the engines are clear of them. This is on account of the very mild weather which has been experienced in the last few years. They could be put on all of the engines on short notice if they were needed.

In the Drummond will case today Judge Sale overruled the demurrer, and an appeal was taken to the circuit court.

COWARD AND CAPTAIN.

Freight Kills One and High Resolve Saves The Other.

A story is told of a cowardly fellow lying behind a stump during an engagement, when a bullet knocked a chip from a stone near by.

The chip struck him in the forehead scarcely breaking the skin. The frightened fellow cried out that he was fatally wounded and rolled over in a faint from which he never came out.

A captain near by was found to have eight bullet wounds and when told in the hospital that he couldn't get well exclaimed, "Yes I will; give me good food and a little time to rest and by all the powers I'll be out of here. My little children need me and I would be a coward to die and leave them helpless." He got well and is a hale old man today and his children haven't forgotten him.

Mark the fact that the mind in the coward's case stopped the machinery of life and the mind in the captain's case kept the machinery going, when skilled physicians said it must stop.

Man becomes a God when the mind mounts to the attitude of high resolve, and by some occult process he at that time, takes unto himself some of the power of the Infinite.

Let one apply this power when aches and ails of the body threaten to overcome. It is a most valuable agent for good health. One should, however, combine good food with a good mind and if ails of any kind press their claims day by day, heed the precepts of Nature before some incurable disease sets up in the body.

One of the first and most important steps to good health is to abandon the use of coffee, for it saps the vitality at the heart and stomach, the most important organs.

If coffee is hard to give up, one can get on very handsomely with Postum Food Coffee, and will shortly find a pronounced improvement in health. The happiest man or woman is not the richest or most brilliant but the healthiest, because such more nearly serve God by keeping their bodies in conformity to the beautiful, perfect working model built by the Creator.

BY CHARLES B. LEWIS.

We had called at Mauritius on our way from Liverpool to Bombay in the ship Farewell and were five days out from the island when the adventure occurred by which we lost the captain and laid the foundation for this story. It was 3 o'clock in the afternoon of a bright day, and the ship was not making above four knots an hour. What sea there was on would not have bothered a quarter boat, and the ship lifted to a wave only at long intervals. The second mate and I were superintending some work forward, while the captain was alone on the quarter deck. All of a sudden and without the slightest warning the sea began to boil and heave under and around us in the most violent manner, and for five minutes every man had to hold on for his life. In her pitching the craft shipped three or four green seas, which swept the decks of everything movable. We were congratulating ourselves that all had escaped when the captain was found to be missing. The last wave we shipped had no doubt carried him away, and by the time we had come to this conclusion it was too late to make any move.

The sea had been disturbed by an earthquake. Just where we were when the agitation began the chart showed the depth to be a full mile. Three months later, when soundings were taken by a French vessel, it was found that a mountain two miles in circumference at the base had been heaved up until its crest was only 40 feet below the surface. The set of wind and wave before and after the agitation was to the westward, and ten minutes after the ship had come back to a level keel the wind changed to the east and blew half a gale for the next seven hours. As a matter of record, the ship pursued her voyage and made the port of Bombay without further adventure, and the remainder of the story relates to the captain. He was swept overboard by the last wave, just as we concluded, and presently found himself far to leeward among a lot of spars and casks which the same wave had taken from the main deck. While the man seized a spar and passed a lashing around his body he had no hope of rescue.

Almost before he realized his position the ship was a mile away, and he felt sure that no boat would be lowered to make a search for him. The spar to which he was lashed drifted away to the west, and evening came on. Between 5 o'clock and sunset four ships passed the drifting man, but all too far away to see or hear, and when night came down he felt that there was no longer the slightest chance for him. He drifted to the westward, as I have told you, but how far has never been known. Night passed and another day came, and toward the close of that day Captain Graham lost consciousness. He may have drifted a day after that—perhaps two days. When he came to his senses again, he was lying on a sandy beach, with his feet in the water. He had been cast ashore on an island. It was surely an island to the north and west of Madagascar, but for reasons which will be explained later on it cannot be more definitely located. For an hour after opening his eyes the man could not unlash himself from the spar. When he had finally accomplished that object, he had to crawl on hands and knees to reach the shade of the bushes. It was high noon and the weather hot, and the captain was so exhausted that if he had not found fresh water and wild fruit at hand he must have perished. He ate and drank his fill and then slept, and the sun was just rising next morning when he awoke.

The island, when the castaway came to survey it, was about two miles and a half long by one mile in breadth, and its average height above the sea was not over 15 feet. It was of volcanic origin and was entirely covered with verdure, and there were six or seven different sorts of wild fruits. Along the beach were oysters and shellfish in abundance, and the captain soon assured himself that starvation would not be one of the perils of his situation. What struck him curiously was the entire absence of life on the island. There was neither animal nor bird, reptile nor insect. There should have been a dozen varieties of birds and an abundance of insect life on so fair a spot with its tropical climate, but it was simply tenantless. And yet there was life there, and where the castaway least expected. He had been on the island a week or so and had twice walked clear around it when one day as he was gathering fruit in an open spot he was suddenly and fiercely attacked by a naked man. The surprise was great, and the captain had not yet recovered his strength, but, shaking the man off, he seized a club and laid about him so vigorously that his assailant ran away.

It was a white man, and from the marks on his hands he must have been a sailor. How long he had lived there and how he reached the island in the first place are matters for conjecture, but the fact of his being nude went to show that he had been there long enough to wear out his clothes. In breaking away from the captain he ran for the beach. The latter followed at his heels, shouting for him to stop, but the unknown ran to the water, plunged in and swam straight out to sea, looking back now and then and seeming to be in a terrible fright. He held to his course until he could no longer be seen, and there was no doubt he went to his death, as he did not return. In a dense thicket the captain found a rude shelter which the man had used, and among the dried grass forming his bed were a few fragments of cloth which had once been a pea jacket. There were also a sailor's pipe and an empty tobacco box. Living there alone for years and years, with neither the note of a bird or the chirp of a cricket to cheer him, the man had lost his mind and, looking upon Captain Graham as an intruder, had meant to take his life.

When the castaway had been a month on the island without sighting a sail, he made up his mind that the fate of the poor fellow who had dashed into the sea would some day be his. He felt that he would lose his mind unless he made an effort to divert it from the gloomy situation, and he began a closer survey of the island. The center of it was considerably higher than elsewhere, and exactly in the middle was a single tree, surrounded by a thicket which he had never yet penetrated. In carrying out his explorations he entered this copse, finding a hard beaten path, evidently made by a crazy man. Piled up at the roots of the tree the captain found a great stock of small iron bound boxes, and it needed but one glance to satisfy him that they were treasure boxes. There was the cavity where they had once been buried, and the boxes were weather beaten as if long exposed. Two or three large shells lay about, which had doubtless been used to dig out the dirt, and one of the boxes had been opened.

The captain shouldered this box and carried it down to the spot he called "home," and there inspected its contents. It contained about $6,000 in gold coin of all nations, but principally English, and not a coin among them was of recent date. In fact, there were some which no longer circulated in England or India. From the material and construction the captain judged that the boxes had been made by a ship's carpenter. In the pile at the foot of the tree were 15 other boxes of the same size. One was broken open, and its contents found to be the same as the first and the amount very nearly the same. There was a total, as the captain figured, of $100,000 more or less. This was based on the supposition that all the boxes contained gold, but as he looked into only two he could not be sure of the contents of the others. How came the treasure there? Captain Graham believed it to be a pirate's cache and that the gold had been there long years before he was thrown on the beach. Perhaps the mad sailor had been one of the pirate crew. It was certain that he had unearthed the treasure at any rate, and it was hardly probable that he stumbled upon it by accident.

Well, there was a big fortune there, and it belonged to the finder, but it might have been so much sand for all the good it could do him. Days and weeks and months passed away, and one day the castaway counted up the pebbles he had laid in rows along the beach to mark the time and found that he had been 11 months on the island.

On that day there came a furious gale from the east, with a very high tide, and from some wreck at sea the waves brought in a vast quantity of stuff. There was nothing to eat or to wear among the wreckage, but there were planks and spars and a carpenter's tool chest, and as soon as the storm had abated the castaway went to work to build him a raft. He had determined to leave the island at any hazard, and after four or five days' work he had his raft completed. It was a rude but stout affair. Wild fruits were taken for provisions, and fresh water was carried in a wine keg which had come ashore with the wreckage. From one of the boxes the captain took $500 in goldpieces, and one morning when the wind was from the west he launched his raft and drifted off before it. By his reckoning, which was probably correct, it was seven days before he was picked up by the John J. Speed, an American merchant vessel, homeward bound.

The raft had made good weather of it, drifting most of the time to the east, and the captain judged her total drift to have been 100 miles. His loss had been alluded to in the newspapers and talked of among sailors, and he was given a hearty welcome aboard the American. He related his adventures in full, except as to the treasure, and in due time was landed at Cape Town. He had figured out the latitude and longitude of his island to his own satisfaction, but the chart on board the Speed failed to show any such island. Captain Graham at once set about finding a ship to bring the treasure off. A brig was finally chartered and sailed with him aboard, but after a cruise of months she failed to find the island. Where Captain Graham said the island ought to be lead found bottom at 40 feet, and in the immediate neighborhood a mass of trees and bushes was found floating about.

Village Overrun With Skunks. Clinton, N. Y., furnishes good trapping ground for fur hunters. On and near the premises of one residence in Prospect street six large skunks were recently killed. In fact, the whole village seems to be overrun with the nuisance. Pedestrians avoid some streets altogether in fear of meeting the odorous nocturnal travelers. It has been suggested that the village fathers offer a bounty on every one killed. The skin brings a good price, and those who care to make a little money could find a chance in trapping—Utica Observer.

THE ARGONAUTS.

From east and west we gathered in one crew
The restless and unruly of the world.
The stars laughed from the banner we unfurled.
We were stout hearts, boon spirits, tried and true.
Then lightly from the mast thronged port we drew.
For it was ours, from utmost isles imperaled
In stormy sea, where wave and tempest swirled,
To fetch for man a lost and priceless clew.
And still, for many a day, our mighty bark
With roaring sail flies onward o'er the deep.
And we, at dawn, with anxious vision scan
Each new horizon, lifted from the dark,
For islands which have liberty in keep—
The Golden Fleece which we must win for man.

A novel kind of service has been held at St. John's church, Streamtown, an egg service. The congregation, a poor one, was asked to bring offerings in the shape of new-laid eggs for the sick and convalescent in the hospitals. CHARLES H. LEE, Frank J. Miller and B. B. Northrop have been appointed by the Business Men's association of Racine, to represent that body in the monetary convention to be held in Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 25.

For a time at Marinette Wednesday night it looked as though a portion of shanty town was doomed by the ice shoving in from the bay, due to a strong wind from the northwest. The ice is from thirty to forty feet high in places.

GAMER Warden Johnston of Oshkosh, denies emphatically the allegation that he did not turn the twenty miles of nets captured in the last raid. County officials who were present say that they saw the nets burn and that they should judge from the looks of the pile that all of the nets which had been captured were burned.

The State Horticultural society, the State Forestry association, the Wisconsin Cheese Makers' association and the alumni of the short course in the college of agriculture will hold a joint convention in Madison, Feb. 1 to 4. The authorities of the Sheboygan county asylum, are making an effort to collect twelve years' board at $3 a week from the estate of Mrs. Ferdinand Beechley, who has been confined in that institution for that length of time and was not committed according to law. OWING to reports that certain lands claimed by the Northern Pacific still belonged to the government, some of the residents of Superior tried to take up land in the disputed strip. They have failed, however, to take claims filed in the land office at Ashland, and have reported the case to Congressman Jenkins, as it is thought that possibly the authorities at Washington have not notified the land office as yet.

THE Land and Improvement company of Chicago, has purchased 2,000 acres of swamp land in Portage county from the state. This is said to be but a small part of similar land which will be purchased in different parts of the state. The plan of the company is to thoroughly drain the swamps and open it up to settlement by farmers. The price paid to the state is 75 cents an acre, but this represents but a small part of the money invested by the company, as the cost of draining will be enormous; the company is said, however, to have ample financial backing.

OFFSPRING NOT AFFECTED

Experiments Made With Cows Infected With Tuberculosis.

Tuberculosis, the disease that worries county cattle raisers, is now being looked after by government officials to determine whether or not healthy calves can be born to diseased cows. The United States agriculture experiment station situated at Madison recently purchased an entire herd of cattle, numbering twenty-three, from a dairy farmer near Milwaukee, sixteen of which were affected with tuberculosis. The cattle are known to have been infected for several years, and the officials of the station have been experimenting with them. The conclusion of the series of experiments is that healthy calves can be raised from diseased cows. Fourteen calves born by diseased cows have grown up entirely free from the disease.

WOOL AND VELVET COSTUME FROM HARPER'S BAZAR

All through the winter as well as the spring and summer wool costumes are considered the smartest for street wear and it is surprising to see how many different fashions are continually appearing which are, each and all, distinctive. Just at present the long polonaise or redingote effect is more in favor than the short blouse which has been so much in style for some months. Another point about the new gowns is that they are most elaborately trimmed either with braiding, fur or velvet. One gown which is exceedingly becoming and effective is made of cloth of a dark gray color. The skirt is of medium length and is trimmed with machine stitching and a darker shade of velvet. The waist has double revers which at the back form capes over the shoulders.

These are of velvet of a very much deeper shade. The front of the waist is extremely odd made with a shaped plastron of cloth which is so cut as to give long and becoming lines to the figure. This is a desirable feature and one not always easy to for the amateur dressmaker to attain and here the cut tissue paper pattern of this gown issued by Harper's Bazar, where it appears will be very useful. The belt is of velvet and the collar is also of velvet, while at the back of the neck are three tiny ostrich tips. Any dull effect the velvet might have is obviated by being lined with white satin. The buttons are of velvet and the way in which the velvet is put on the skirt is decidedly new and quite unlike anything that has been seen before.

BOYS SMELL OF CIGARETTES

Evansville Paper Tells of the Trials of Janesville Girls.

The Evansville Enterprise says: "Some little girls who attend the public schools of Janesville are making piteous complaints. They say that they have headaches and are made to suffer, on account of having to sit in a close school room for several hours daily within a few feet of boys whose constant use of cigarettes creates such an odor that it sickens and irritates them."

COMING ECLIPSE OF THE SUN

It Will Not Be Observed in America—Chinese Fear its Consequence.

The officials of the Washburn observatory at Madison say that the total eclipse of the sun, which will take place on Jan. 22, will not be visible at all on the continent of America. The path of the total eclipse will start in the Soudan in Central Africa and pass through Eastern Africa, Arabia, a part of India, and end in Northwestern China. All the continents of Asia will be covered by the shadow of the partial eclipse, as will also the eastern part of Europe, and all Africa except the extreme Western coast. About one-half of the Indian ocean will be covered.

The greatest duration of the partial eclipse will be three and a quarter hours at the center of the path of the total eclipse near the west coast of Hindustan in the Arabian sea. The greatest duration of the total eclipse will be 2 minutes 19 1/2 seconds at the same place.

The government of China has issued an order that all festivities must be abandoned on the day of the eclipse which falls on the Chinese New Year's day. The people are commanded to gather in the temples and adore the empress dowager, in the hope that the wrath of the gods which the eclipse is supposed to represent, may be averted.

A PLAGUE OF THE NIGHT

ITCHING PILES AND OTHER RECTAL TROUBLES EASILY CURED BY A NEW AND SAFE METHOD.

A Remarkable Number of Cures Made By The Pyramid Pile Cure.

About one person in every four suffers from some form of rectal disease. The most common and annoying is itching piles, indicated by warmth, slight moisture and intense uncontrollable itching in the parts affected.

The usual treatment has been some simple ointment of salve which sometimes give temporary relief, but nothing like a permanent cure can be expected from such superficial treatment.

The only permanent cure for itching piles yet discovered is the Pyramid Pile Cure, not only for itching piles, but for every other form of piles, blind, bleeding or protruding. The first application gives instant relief, and the continued use for a short time causes a permanent removal of the tumors or the small parasites which cause the intense itching and discomfort of itching piles.

Many physicians for a long time supposed that the remarkable relief afforded by the Pyramid Pile Cure was because it was supposed to contain cocaine, opium or similar drugs, but such is not the case. A recent careful analysis of the remedy showed it to be absolutely free from any cocaine, opium, or in fact any poisonous, injurious drugs whatever.

For this reason the Pyramid Pile Cure is probably the only pile cure extensively recommended by physicians, because it is so safe, so prompt, in the relief afforded and so far as known the only positive cure for piles except a surgical operation.

In one year the Pyramid Pile Co. has become the best known, the safest and the most extensively sold of any pile cure before the public.

Nearly all druggists now sell it at 50 cents and $1 per package.

Address the Pyramid Pile Co., Marshall, Mich., for book on cause of piles and also hundreds of testimonials from all parts of the United States.

If suffering from any form of piles ask your druggist for a package of Pyramid Pile Cure and try it tonight.

January Cloak Business..

Is good—better than usual in this month, but whether it is because there's more money in circulation or that we are giving better values than ever before, we cannot tell. Certain it is that business in the cloak department reminds us of the busy times during early season. Of course there are many reasons why women are buying cloaks at this time, the most important being that the new and stylish coats which have been priced at $9 to $15 can be bought today at $5.00, and coats which have been up to $7.50 are now down to $2.87. This applies to misses' jackets as well as to ladies' garments, whether jackets or capes.

It is well to have in mind that the line of new, stylish garments which we show at this time is larger and more complete than the average store shows at the beginning of a season. For large women we have plenty of good coats in 40, 42, 44 and 46 bust measures at both the above prices—$2.87 and $5.00.

Gaiter Leggings—For ladies, misses and children in six sizes, made of black jersey cloth, with buttons and straps. Prices 75c to $1.35 according to size. No gaiter on the market to equal them for warmth.

Fleece Lined Hosiery—Have all sizes, in two qualities for ladies—25c and 35c, and at the prices they are excellent value. For children, have a line, sizes 6 to 9 1/2, at 10c and 12 1/2c.

All lines of Winter Goods are priced low.
